

AUSTRALIAN GOURMET
TRAVELLER

Colonel Tan's is the south-of-the-river sibling of the Thai café at Cookie. Sitting in a chandelier-laden corner of the bar Revolver Upstairs, the Colonel takes a similar, though briefer, trip through authentic Thai territory (cashew and chilli salad; snapper, ginger and lime wrapped in betel leaves), mercifully avoiding the sugary rut into which most Melbourne Thai joints fall.

